8th March 2011

International Women's Day

To mark the economic, political and social achievements of women.

Ross Street Community Centre - off Mill Road.

Two Free Events with crèche and lunch provided

Contact Caroline or Jane on 01223 471674 - Disabled Access

Lunchtime Event 10.30am – 2pm

Come to our informal drop in between 10.30 and 2.00 and see some exciting stalls and workshops – treat yourself or buy a gift (see below). If you are at work just drop in for lunch between 12.30 and 1.30pm.

Tom Foolery - unusual and affordable jewellery - for something to make you stand out from the crowd!!!

Q HERE - for funky, eye - catching bags made by Ruth Schmid. Laptop bags, mobile phone sleeves, shoulder bags, shopping bags, messenger bags, even swim bags, exciting colours and designs.

Beessence Natural Candles – Carefully crafted hand-made candles using 100% beeswax.

Egyptian scarves and jewellery

Asian clothing - Saris and Salwar Kameez

Jewellery making workshop

Art and craft activities for children

Evening Event 7.00pm – 9.00pm

In the evening the pace hots up with a display of Afghan and Iranian dancing, and more urban poems by the talented and inspiring black poet 'Realitie'. Drop in between 7.30 and 9.30pm and taste snacks from around the world.

Realitie - Performance Poet – Back by popular demand. "Josephine isn't afraid to touch on taboos that others are too embarrassed to discuss. Her words make me quiver, her poetry is heartrending and she is an admirable pillar in the community. She is a voice that needs to be heard by all!!" - Hadel

Ziba Tabrizi - She is one of very few performers of authentic Persian, Tajik, Azeri and Afghan dance in the UK, and aims to increase public awareness of these relatively rare art forms which are graceful, diverse and exciting. She has performed in both the UK and Iran.

Tom Foolery | Q HERE | Beessence

International Women's Day

CAMBRIDGE CITY COUNCIL